Court takes action on California Bar Examination

(Jul 16, 2020)

The Supreme Court of California announced that it will permanently lower the passing score for the California Bar Exam and released plans for an October 5-6 test administered online. The court also directed the State Bar of California to expedite creation of a provisional licensure program under supervision to 2020 law school graduates—effective at least until June 1, 2022, or until they can take and pass a California bar exam.

California Supreme Court Names Jury Selection Work Group

(Jul 6, 2020)

The Supreme Court of California on Monday named members to its Jury Selection Work Group to study changes or new measures to guard against impermissible discrimination in jury selection. The work group includes 11 judges and justices that represent the California Supreme Court, appellate courts and trial courts throughout the state. Over 12 to 15 months, work group members will study a broad range of topics related to jury selection, including diversity in California jury pools, changes to jury instructions and the impact of unconscious bias.

California Supreme Court Amends Code of Judicial Ethics

(Jun 15, 2020)

The Supreme Court of California unanimously adopted a slate of changes to the California Code of Judicial Ethics, which include allowing judges to speak publicly about a pending case if they are criticized for a ruling during an election or recall campaign. The amendments, which go into effect July 1, were open for public comment over two months beginning last October and are based on the recommendations of the California Supreme Court's Advisory Committee on the Code of Judicial Ethics.

Supreme Court of California Issues Statement on Equality and Inclusion

(Jun 11, 2020)

In view of recent events in our communities and through the nation, we are at an inflection point in our history. It is all too clear that the legacy of past injustices inflicted on African Americans persists powerfully and tragically to this day. Each of us has a duty to recognize there is much unfinished and essential work that must be done to make equality and inclusion an everyday reality for all. [\[Full statement\]](#).
